Jim Whitten

BARRICADE
JUN. 15 – AUG. 13, 2023

About the Exhibit

Real Art Ways presents a solo exhibition by Jim Whitten. Curated by David Borawski.

BARRICADE

Who's on one side?
Who's on the other side?
What does one of them want?
What does the other one want?
Will the barricade hold?
If not, how long does it hold for?
Does this extra time provide an opportunity?

Is everyone safe?

About the Artist

Jim Whitten is a conceptual artist with a strong interest in Fluxus art.

His project, SNFFBX, has created virtual and in-person art shows, released 4 artist books, and offered art bundles that have represented over 20 artists. SNFFBX also began a pop-up gallery called No Fly List with fellow artist, Christa Whitten.

Support for Real Art Ways Visual Arts Programs provided by:

The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, the New England Foundation for the Arts through the New England Arts Resilience Fund, the Department of Economic and Community Development Office of the Arts, The Edward C. & Ann T. Roberts Foundation, the Greater Hartford Arts Council's United Arts Campaign, Hartford Foundation for Public Giving, Travelers Foundation, J. Walton Bissell Foundation, Sandy and Howard Fromson, and Real Art Ways' members.
